

Engagement Dashboard

Your data journey continues with the Engagement Dashboard. Available on demand, it's designed to help roles such as advisors, principals, and managers quickly identify at-risk and succeeding groups and individuals. We've gathered up key engagement indicators such as course access, assignment submission metrics, time spent in content, and the effect of that time on grades to make it easy for you to analyze and act on the engagement trends within the Brightspace platform at your organization.

TIME IN CONTENT

What is the distribution of time in content per user per course across the organization?

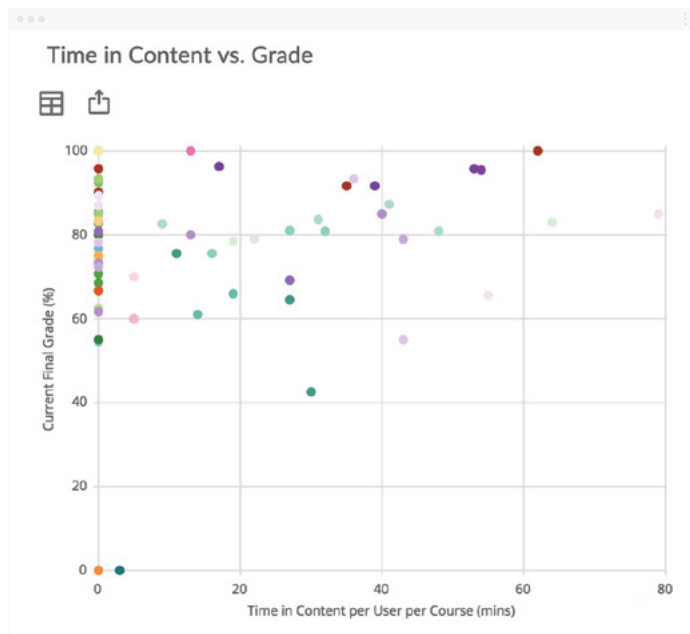

- See how time in content varies by role, e.g., learners, educators, assistants.
- Compare a user's time in content in a course with their peers.
- Review time in content across each content module and topic.

TIME IN CONTENT VS. GRADES

What is the impact of content engagement on final grades?

- Identify clusters of learners with similar engagement and results.
- Compare a learner's time in content across each of their courses.
- Share content with learners for productive intervention.

LAST COURSE ACCESS

When is the last time a user accessed their course(s) in Brightspace?

- See the course access frequency of all users.
- See how course access varies by role, e.g., learners, educators, assistants.
- Drill down to user-level data to take immediate action.

STATUS OF ASSIGNMENTS WITH DUE DATES

How are learners completing their assignments?

- Identify learners with overdue assignments.
- Proactively reach out to learners with upcoming assignment due dates who have not accessed their course.
- All assignment details in one place makes it easy to act on the data.
