SPEED UP THE CREATION PROCESS AND BUILD SKILLS AND CONFIDENCE

Speed up content creation process for your course creators by using seamless and familiar iLearnNYC workflows with Creator+.

When several designers and content creators work separately using different applications, it becomes difficult to design the courses in a way that's consistent for your users. With Creator+, set global styles for your institution, a collection of courses, or just one. Ensuring a design consistency that your users will thank you for.

Kick start content creation with gorgeous templates, aligned to your school's colors and style, with helpful instructional design tips and suggestions baked right in.

No need to buy and train on expensive content and interactive authoring software. D2L has brought all the best parts, and more, right into iLearnNYC.
